DEDICATION

DEDICATION

Now at the turning point of our lives, we, the Graduating Class of "1954", pause to pay respect to JOHN ALBERT, who devoted thirty-one continuous years as school bus driver. He started with the horse drawn school wagon and continued when the motor driven bus took its place. May we remember him for his capability and pleasant trustworthy service.

To this gentleman we dedicate our school annual.

1954 CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1941 seven enthusiastic youngsters were climbing the long hill to enjoy their day at Lodi Public School. These seven bright faced children who were the only ones to start and finish in the class of "54" were greeted by the first grade teacher, Miss Williams¹. They introduced themselves to her as -- George Benson, Jo Ellen Hien, Anita Horner, Sharon Martin, Pat Orr, Russell Weaver, and Barbara Young.

After spending a year learning the first step of education and having fun we were promoted to the second grade where we enjoyed further training by Miss Loomis.

Although we enjoyed getting through the second grade and going on to the third grade to be taught by Miss Grimm, we were grieved by Pat Orr's moving away.

The coming of the fourth grade gave us the privilege of being able to play on the other side of the building. Naturally because of this we thought we were really big but our teacher, Miss Morton, kept us down to earth in our proper places.

The next year we were really proud -- we were now on the second floor of the grade building and that was really something. We spent a joyful year there with the fifth grade teacher, Miss Kiplinger and Bonnie Brewster, a new pupil.

In our sixth grade, we were all happy with the thought that soon we would be going over to the high school building, that is, if our teacher, Mrs. Harmon, thought we were as smart as we did. We were also glad to have Pat Orr join our little class again.

Now the moment had arrived, we were moving into the high school building. There we were met by the faculty, who informed us that Miss Garver was to be our home room teacher. They also tried to teach us the rules and regulations of proper behavior. Due to some unfortunate circumstances, they are still trying. We acquired John Warner as a member of our class and, with the help of the teachers, we finally were able to find our way around the maze of rooms and halls.

The eighth grade seemed a little more fun. Our home room teacher, Mrs. Schafer, must have found us a little difficult to handle for we ran wild in the place -- after all, we knew our way around and we were really grown up. We thought!

We finally made it into senior high. Although we had Mrs. Eastman's help, we found that being a freshman wasn't so easy. Our class grew in proportions thanks to the addition of Martha Bigley, Evelyn Farnsworth, and Loyal Sanford.

We managed to live through our freshman year and made it on to the sophomore class. Mr. Wright was our home room teacher when we started, but he left us at the half year, with Mr. Weir taking his place. Again we grew in size with the enrollment of a new student who was introduced to us as Frieda Grimm.

The junior year proved to be busier than ever for we had the football and basketball stands and sold pencils and other small items. We had to sponsor the Junior - Senior Prom; but, with the help of Mr. Weir, who had gone on to the junior home room with us, and the aid of the new student, Velma Johnson, things turned out rather well.

Being rather sad about soon leaving the school, old friends, and teachers and yet looking forward to further studies and jobs, we went into our senior year with Mr. Weir. We found this year much busier than we had expected. We had a lot of jobs to do but our biggest one was the annual.

The final number of students in the class of "54" is only fourteen. Even though this is a comparatively small class we have many pleasant and happy memories about our school days, and as we stand on the threshold of our destiny, we try looking into the future hoping to see just as many or more appealing times.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1954

We, the class of 1954, being of sound mind and body, do hereby set up this document as our last will and testament.

SECTION I

- ARTICLE I To Mr. Wood, we leave our brand new government books. It's a cinch we didn't use them much.
- ARTICLE II To Mr. Skurvid, we leave a quiet sixth period study hall.
- ARTICLE III To Mrs. Still, we leave all the excuse blanks she signed without an excuse from home.
- ARTICLE IV To Mr. Wier, WE LEAVE.
- ARTICLE V To Miss Sechrist, we leave all the over - due books in the library.
- ARTICLE VI To Mrs. Schafer, we leave all the slightly used typewriters, and the short-hand notes that even her students couldn't read.
- ARTICLE VII To Mr. McCoy, we leave all the confiscated "forgotten articles" which no one ever had the money to redeem.
- ARTICLE VIII To Miss Carroll, we leave a pleasant (?) memory of her senior English class.
- ARTICLE IX To Mr. Pieterzak, we leave all the slide rules and broken equipment in the laboratory.
- ARTICLE X To Mrs. Badger, we leave the Home Economics rooms in good order, only because we didn't use them much.
- ARTICLE XI To Mr. Burton, we leave the shop equipment in hopes that no one loses an arm next year, either.
- ARTICLE XII To Mr. Spechalske, we leave some students that will WALK down the stairs quietly.
- ARTICLE XIII To Larry, we leave all the cold rooms in the building, in hopes he has enough clothes to keep warm.

SECTION II

- ARTICLE I To the juniors, we leave six rules on how to get along with Mr. Wood. 1. Study. 2. Laugh at his jokes. 3. Do assigned homework. 4. Laugh at his jokes. 5. Pay attention in class. 6. Laugh at his jokes.
- ARTICLE II To the sophomores, we leave room 22, and all the little children in room 21, in hopes they don't get on your nerves as they did ours.
- ARTICLE III To the freshmen, we leave three years of work, worry, and wrong answers.

SECTION III

- ARTICLE I Evelyn Farnsworth wills Skippy Bryant to Miss Carroll for safe keeping; and her ability to get moved around in Mr. Spechalske's study hall for talking to Nancy Schondel, who already has a good start.
- ARTICLE II Jo Ellen Hien wills her ability to always get caught doing something she shouldn't be doing to her sister, Ruth.
- ARTICLE III Loyal Sanford wills his bookkeeping ability to Judy Eaken, in hopes she'll keep the books balanced next year.
- ARTICLE IV Martha Bigley wills her position as Home-Coming queen to her cousin, Darlene.
- ARTICLE V John Warner wills his ability to get along with the football team to his sister, Mildred.
- ARTICLE VI Pat Orr wills her ability to keep her mouth shut at the right time to Linda Milkey, who needs it; and her class ring to the person who has it now.
- ARTICLE VI Sharon Martin wills her long hair and tremendous height to Birdie Sivard.
- ARTICLE VIII Frieda Grimm wills her height to Rita Padgett, her laugh to Pat Warner, and her ability to say dumb things without getting slugged to anyone stupid enough to want them.
- ARTICLE IX Bonnie Brewster wills her ability to always get to school at the same time every morning (late) to anyone who wants it.
- ARTICLE X Velma Johnson wills her quietness to the two fellows that Mr. Skurvid caught talking one day in sixth period study hall. If the shoe fits, wear it, fellows.
- ARTICLE XI Barbara Young wills her ability to get along with Dean Snider to Pat Warner, and Dorothy Aukerman, who are doing a much better job than she is.
- ARTICLE XII Anita Horner wills her black and blue marks to anyone with nerve enough to carry them around.
- ARTICLE XIII Russell Weaver wills his ability to stay in chorus four years and get kicked out only twice to anyone with a face innocent enough to use it.
- ARTICLE IX George Benson wills his secret hair oil formula to Dick Snader.

CLASS PROPHECY

Hi Anita,

I thought I would drop you a line to reminisce about the class reunion last month. The kids in our class have certainly turned out differently from what we expected.

Everytime I think of you out milking those cows, I just laugh and laugh. Forty - four cows and eleven children, all boys, tied to your apron string.

I was quite surprised when George Benson told us about his promotion to assistant to the assistant to the assistant Vice Secretary of Fisher Bodies Inc.

Martha Bigley has increased her business too. She now has 22 trailers in her Mobil Beauty Salon Inc. Wonderful, isn't it?

Imagine Bonnie Brewster! She is editor of the Lodi Review. She always was quite a whiz at writing essays in school, wasn't she?

I just can't get over Evelyn Farnsworth. She has just started proceedings for her seventh divorce. But then, she never could make up her mind, could she?

I'm glad Jo Ellen Hien finally got her school started. She is running a very private and exclusive school for little rich, brats.

Velma Johnson is really getting along in the business world. Her "Velma's Fine Food and Truck Service" is known throughout the world as the best.

Sharon Martin is really in the chips now. She is right where she's always wanted to be. She is married to Bob, and you know how that family sticks together. Sharon is keeping house for all of them. Imagine her life! Cook, scrub, clean, cook. I just can't picture her like that. And then those seven darling youngsters! That's the life!

You knew about Patty Orr, didn't you? They've made her head of all circulation of the Beacon Journals in Lodi. Remember how she was always going around helping deliver them during school.

John Warner must feel pretty bad about hurting his hip in that last football game. Did you know they're going to have him coach the Cleveland Browns? They even changed the name to the Cleveland Warners.

Loyal Sanford is now the head of all the electronic computers at Bell Laboratories. Whenever they get a trifle slow, he helps them along by supplying the answers. Loyal is equipped with quite a mind.

Russell Weaver is playing basketball with the World Trotters, competitors of the Globetrotters. He and Goose Tatum are always battling for top honors in their basketball tournaments.

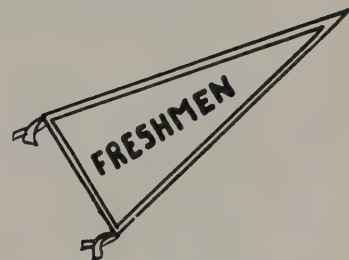

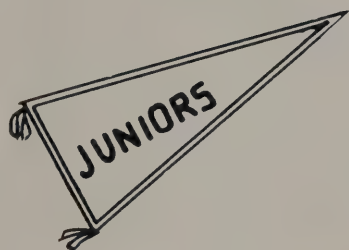

Where are you buying your gas now? Barb Young said to be sure and put in a plug for her gas station. In between having children and keeping house, she pumps gas, changes tires and checks oil. Oh well, everyone to his own taste.

Well, I must get back to work. I changed jobs again. I never could make up my mind. First I tried airline work, then modeling, nursing, and now I'm in the plumbing business. I'm working for Jack Devoe. Great Fun!

As always, .

Frieda

We the class of '54 together with the football and basketball players recognize, Dr. E. L. Cash, for the gratuitous service he has rendered to our athletic teams for so many years.

Lodi Scores First Upset of Tournament

Tigers Edge Seville 58-54 for First Of the Season

SATURDAY'S RESULTS

Brunswick 56, Homer 49.
Buckeye 60, Spencer 54.
Highland 63, LeRoy 50.
Lodi 58, Seville 54.

WEDNESDAY'S SCHEDULE

7 p.m.—Lodi vs. Homer.
8:20 p.m.—Buckeye vs. LeRoy.

It is very seldom that a basketball tournament runs its complete course as the dopesters had it picked. More often than not somewhere along the line some underdog team will pull a startling upset and that is probably what draws such huge crowds to these affairs and it is a good thing for otherwise the games would get pretty dull for everyone except the wildest partisans of the winning teams.

And that is just what happened Saturday night in the Medina county Class B tourney currently running at the Medina high school gymnasium. After four games on Monday night and the first three contests on Saturday night some of which had provided minor thrills but all of which resulted in pretty much the same old story, the Seville team pulled off a major upset.

Tiger during game

more recent was the fact that no "luck" connected with the victory. It became evident early in the first period that Coach B.R. Spechalske and his young charges had a carefully worked out campaign plan which they stuck to 100 per cent and they just plain outplayed the favored

LODI WINS OVER SEVILLE

by Don Travis

Last Saturday night, Lodi won its first basketball game of the season. Before winning this game Lodi lost its first tournament game to LeRoy. High scorers of that game were Weaver 14, and Sabin 18. Other scorers were Warner 9, Indoe 9, and Snader 6. The final score was 48-30. Just three days before the game we had beaten by the Seville club.

It is of you know by now. The first game Lodi has won in the last year in both football and basketball. I have been

WITH A MINUTE TO GO, Lodi was leading 58-54. Biller and John Tucker tried to get the ball in and missed. Russ Weaver fouled and his free throw went out in front. Warner looped a pass to Chaney when Chaney had 56 seconds left. Lodi 56, Seville 54. 0.0 seconds to go. Lump shot and Lodi won.

Tom Goelz scored 12 individual points while Chaney and Don Chaney scored 12 points each. Figures with 12 points and 12 rebounds. Weaver paced the team with 14 points and was ably assisted by his teammates Dick Sabin, John Warner with 18 and Chaney with 14 points, respectively.

Seville, Lodi Fight To 6-6 Deadlock

SEVILLE — Seville Barbers battled Lodi's Tiger eleven to a 6-6 tie in a contest which failed to put either team into the win column for the season Friday night on the Seville field.

With Coach Zane McCoy's grid-ers holding only a slight edge in offensive figures, the game was balanced by defensive tightness.

Seville led off by scoring a first quarter touchdown after a sustained drive. Bob Mathys, 140-pound junior halfback, pushed one yard over the line to tally.

Lodi's single TD came in the second period when Senior Halfback John Warner went 28 yards on a handoff play. Lodi got as far as the Seville 10 yard stripe in the final period but lost the ball on downs after being thrown back to the 22. While grossing 115 yards on the ground, the Tigers lost 39 yards to net 76 yards.

Seville gained 74 yards on the ground and lost 8 yards while battling down 13 of Lodi's 14 attempted passes. Lodi came out on top in the first down department 10-5.

Lodi Ties Plymouth in Homecoming Game

(By Don Travis)

Lodi Tigers had their annual homecoming Friday when they tied Plymouth 14-14. The ceremony took place at the half. Last year's queen, Marilyn Hall, placed the crown on this year's queen, Martha Bigley.

Final statistics showed that the game was a very close one. Plymouth had 14 first downs, while Lodi had 12. Lodi gained 144 yards, while Plymouth gained 138.

The game went right down the middle. The Pilgrims then scored a touchdown through the middle for an extra point. The Pilgrims scored 14 points in the first half when Dean scored a touchdown and a field goal.

A GAME MAN'S PRAYER

DEAR GOD: Help me to be a sport in this little game of life. I don't ask for any place in the lineup; play me where you need me. I only ask for the stuff to give you a hundred per cent of what I've got. If all the hard drives come my way I thank You for the compliment. Help me to remember that You won't let anything come that You and I together can't handle. And help me to take the bad breaks as part of the game. Help make me thankful for them.

"And, God, help me always to play on the square, no matter what the other players do. Help me to come clean. Help me to see that often the best part of the game is helping the other guys. Help me to be a 'regular' fellow with the other players.

"Finally, God, if fate seems to uppercute me with both hands and I'm laid up on the shelf in sickness or old age, help me to take that as part of the game also. Help me not to whimper or squeal that the game was a frameup or that I had a raw deal. When in the dusk I get the final bell, I ask for no lying, complimentary stones. I'd only like to know that You feel I've been a good guy."—Chaplain's Digest.
